H-Lounge

H-Lounge is a digital music distributor that enables independent artists and labels to sell their music as Ringtones and MP3s directly to their fans, in a simple, headache-free process that requires just a couple of mouse clicks. There are no set-up costs, no monthly fees, and no lock-in agreements. Sign up whenever you want, and leave whenever you want.

For Artists, H-Lounge is a digital distribution tool. H-Lounge enables artists to set up a storefront on their own website, giving them full control with with an embeddable HTML widget called the H-Player.

The H-Player is not only a music store for artists, but also a promotional tool that you and your fans can use to post and promote your music on their pages, resulting in a word-of-mouth effect.

How much do I make?

Boasting the most aggressive revenue share program in the world, H-Lounge artists make up to 90% of the revenue, depending how much they sell.

Every single sale increases the revenue percentage of that sale and every subsequent unpaid sale.

How does it work?

1. Sign up for free
2. Upload music for free
3. Promote your music with the H-Player
4. Fans buy the music using H-Player on your sites
5. Get paid every month via Paypal

For Fans, H-Lounge gives music buyers freedom and ownership of the purchased music. They can download purchased music onto their phone, their iPod, or Skype from a single purchase.

We support MP3s, ringtones to Verizon, Cingular, Sprint and T-Mobile and Skypetones.

Harmony Line, Inc.

Harmony Line, Inc. the makers of H-Lounge.com and Hyperscore.com, was incorporated in 2004 and is based in Cambridge, Massachusetts. We are a group of people ridiculously passionate about music, who believe that there are thousands of artists who deserve a way to sell their music without getting signed by the big labels, and that fans shouldn't have to pay three times for the same piece of music. We provide a seamless and free technical platform to support digital sales for artists, enabling them to focus on their music. And we provide a simply buying process for fans that lets them use their credit card or their mobile phone for payment. H-Lounge - this is the real music industry.
